

AIDS Omnibus Act (1988)	Healthy Youth Act (2007) *
HIV prevention education required by all districts in grades 5-12.	Sexual health education is an optional choice for districts.
Education required at least once each school year beginning no later than Grade 5.	District decides whether or not to provide this education.
District consults with stakeholders to adopt a program.	District consults with stakeholders to adopt a program.
Must use either the model curricula (KNOW) and resources or those that have been approved by DOH for medical accuracy.	OSPI and DOH make any related information, model policies, curricula, or other resources available.
All materials must be reviewed for medical accuracy by the DOH.	All materials must be medically and scientifically accurate.
Parent info session required at least one month before teaching the program in any classroom.	Parent info session required at least one month before teaching the program in any classroom.
Materials must be made available for parental inspection.	Materials must be made available for parental inspection.
Attendance at information session required prior to parental written request for removal from instruction.	Parent or guardian can remove their child from instruction with a written request.
OSPI and DOH update curricular material as necessary, based on newly discovered medical facts.	OSPI and DOH list curricula that are consistent with the 2005 guidelines. This list is updated annually.
	Content must be appropriate for students regardless of age, gender, race, disability status, or sexual orientation.
	Must include information about abstinence and other methods of preventing unintended pregnancy and STDs.
	Must be consistent with the 2005 Guidelines.

* Shaded areas indicate areas of difference between the two laws.